From: Jamie Lowther-Pinkerton Esq., M.V.O., M.B.E.
Private Secretary to Prince William and Prince Harry

27th June, 2006

Dear Mr. Gilroy,

Prince William and Prince Harry have asked me to write and thank you very much for your letter of 20th June, on behalf of Mr. Kevin Carlin, in which you enclose a sample copy of Mr. Carlin's work in progress entitled "The Princess of Wales – A Musical and Pictorial Memoir.

The Princes were extremely touched not only by Mr. Carlin's tribute to their mother, but also by his most generous offer to donate a proportion of his share of the royalty income to a charity of their choosing.

Having given careful consideration to the possibilities, The Princes have asked me to pass a copy of this correspondence to Mr. Geoffrey Matthews, the Executive Trustee of Prince Harry's fledgling charity, Sentebale, which is also in memory of their mother. Mr. Matthews will contact you to discuss the project in more detail.

Prince William and Prince Harry are very grateful to Mr. Carlin for thinking of them in this way, and send their best wishes.

yours Sincerely,

Jamie Lowther-Pinkerton

Mr. Nigel Gilroy,
